The image displays three sequential screenshots of the 'Product registration' dialog box, illustrating the steps for internet activation. Each screenshot is annotated with a blue circle containing a number (5, 6, or 7) and arrows pointing to the relevant UI elements.

Screenshot 1 (Step 5): The dialog box is titled 'Product registration'. It contains a 'Serial number' section with the instruction 'Select licence type and enter Serial Number.' There are two radio buttons: 'Trial licence' (selected) and 'Full licence'. Below them is a 'Serial Number' text box containing '000-00000000'. At the bottom right are 'Next >' and 'Cancel' buttons. A blue circle with the number '5' has an arrow pointing to the 'Trial licence' radio button and another arrow pointing to the 'Next >' button.

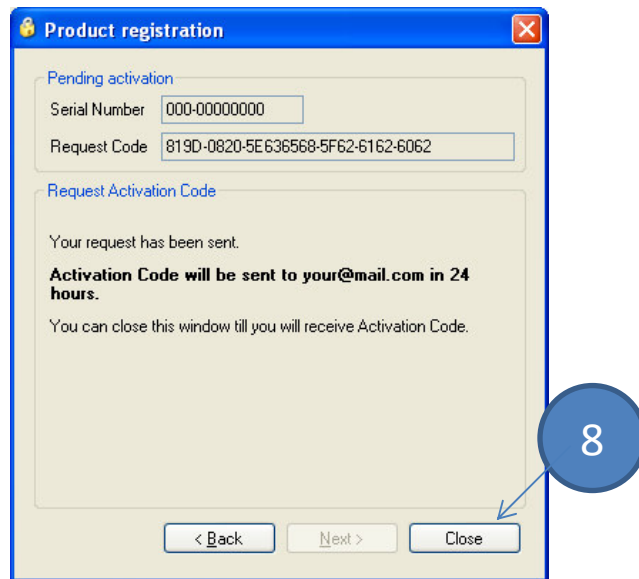

Screenshot 2 (Step 6): The dialog box is titled 'Product registration'. It contains a 'Pending activation' section with a 'Serial Number' text box containing '000-00000000' and a 'Request Code' text box containing '819D-0820-5E636568-5F62-6162-6062'. Below this is an 'Activate licence' section with three radio buttons: 'Request now' (selected), 'How to request Activation Code', and 'Enter Activation Code'. There is also an 'Abort activation' section with a radio button for 'Abort pending activation'. At the bottom right are 'Next >' and 'Cancel' buttons. A blue circle with the number '6' has an arrow pointing to the 'Request now' radio button and another arrow pointing to the 'Next >' button.

Screenshot 3 (Step 7): The dialog box is titled 'Product registration'. It contains a 'Pending activation' section with a 'Serial Number' text box containing '000-00000000' and a 'Request Code' text box containing '819D-0820-5E636568-5F62-6162-6062'. Below this is a 'User information' section with the instruction 'Please fill this form. This information is required for product activation.' There are five text boxes: 'Fist name', 'Last name', 'E-mail address', 'Company name', and 'Company address'. At the bottom right are '< Back', 'Next >', and 'Cancel' buttons. A blue circle with the number '7' has an arrow pointing to the 'Last name' text box and another arrow pointing to the 'Next >' button.
